

HER MOTHER LOVE BRINGS HER HOME, BUT ONLY TO DIE.

Young Woman, Made Ill by Sweatshop Work, Can't Stand Not Seeing Baby.

QUITS HEALTHY RESORT.

Comes Back to City, Goes to Roof for Air and Falls to Death.

The mother-love which brought Mrs. M. Hirschhorn back to the east side from her retreat in a sanitarium in the Bedford Hills ended in a tragedy early today in the little brick-paved yard in the rear of No. 125 Goerck street.

The young mother—who was twenty years old—came to this country with her parents from Germany five years ago. Her name before her marriage was Marie Einwohner, and her maiden prettiness was unusual on the east side, where the family went to live. Marie obtained work in a sweat shop and there she met Israel Hirschhorn, a tailor.

Israel and the girl were married four years ago, and two years ago came the little girl, Rebecca. They went to housekeeping, but the mother's health grew worse, and about eight months ago Israel sent her to Bedford Hills.

There she seemed to improve, but she was always worrying about her separation from the little girl and was never happy as when her husband and Rebecca went to spend a Sunday with her. Hard times, however, made Israel's visits few and far between of late, and Mrs. Hirschhorn grew more nervous and fearful. Last week she wrote her husband that she could stand it no longer, that she was coming to New York, and she arrived yesterday in her parents' home in Goerck street, where Hirschhorn and the little girl went to live when the mother went to Bedford Hills.

She was seized with violent attacks of coughing during the night, and toward morning she told her husband and the little girl that she could not stand the life. He comforted her, and a little later left for work.

A few minutes before 7 o'clock Mrs. Hirschhorn kissed her baby and told her mother that she had to go up on the roof, notwithstanding the swirling gusts of snow, for a breath of fresh air. Mrs. Hirschhorn begged her not to go, being fearful of the cold, but Mrs. Hirschhorn insisted and without even taking a shawl mounted to the roof.

Scarcely five minutes had passed when Mrs. Einwohner saw a shadow pass the rear windows, and looking out, saw a body huddled in the snow in the yard. She rushed to the door, but the body had faded. She found it was that of her daughter. Dr. Spitznagel, of No. 20 Stanton street, was called. He said death had been instantaneous.

QUASH LAWYER ROUSS CASE.

Dismissed Dismissed After Two Juries Fail to Agree.

In the application of District Attorney Williams, Justice Blanchard, in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, today dismissed an indictment against Jacob House, a lawyer, of the firm of Grant & House. The indictment charged House with falsifying records in appeal to the Appellate Division of police men dismissed from the department. Commissioner Bingham made the complaint in 1909. House was tried twice. The first jury stood ten to two for conviction. The second jury was split for conviction and four for acquittal. District Attorney Whitman said today that there is no chance of presenting the evidence for the prosecution in a more favorable light.

YOUNG MOTHER WHO GAVE LIFE TO SEE HER BABY

MRS. M. HIRSCHORN

TO DEPORT BANDMASTER WHO STOLE SHIP'S SILVER.

He Escaped With Two Thieving
Stewards and Was Found
Running Store.

J. Bonitz, who was employed as bandmaster on the North German Lloyd liner Berlin when the vessel got in on Feb. 9 last, was brought from Bull's Ferry road, Weehawken, to Ellis Island and today and detained on a warrant issued by the Commissioner of Immigration.

Bonitz will be ordered deported as an undesirable alien, for the reason that he stole $20 worth of silverware from the Berlin the day after her last arrival in port. Feb. 11 two stewards were held up on the pier and a bag of linen was found to be stuffed with silverware. They were sent back to Germany and prosecuted. Shortly after the stewards had been deported, Bandmaster Bonitz was held up in the same manner. He had $20 worth of silverware.

The following day the two stewards and the bandmaster got away from the Berlin and vanished. With Bonitz went his wife, a stewardess. Yesterday they were located in a little delicatessen store in Weehawken. The steamship line would not prosecute.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effective
Cure For It.

Catarh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery eructations. Formation of gases causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headache, field, appetite, nervousness and a general relaxed and languid feeling. There is often a food taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harkness, the safest and best treatment to use after each meal is a tablet composed of Diphase, Ascorbic Acid, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Have read more people of catarrh of the stomach, indigestion, heartburn, liver trouble, nervous prostration and run down condition generally than all the patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions for stomach trouble combined.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

HEROIC RESCUES AS 22 FAMILIES FLEE FROM FIRE

Police and Firemen Carry Unconscious Ones to Street in Williamsburg.

Detectives from the Fire Marshal's office are investigating a fire which early today threw twenty-two families into panic and sent more than one hundred persons, scantily clad and barefoot, into the cold streets in front of a tenement house at No. 125 South First street, Williamsburg. Before the tenement was emptied, policemen and firemen made many heroic rescues.

The snow storm was just beginning to offer trouble when Policeman Roehrer of the Bedford avenue station noticed smoke coming from the grocery store of Samuel Samuel, who lives with his wife and six small children in the rear of the store. The other four floors of the tenement are crowded. The grocer and his family got out without any trouble, but the policemen found that many of the other tenants had not been able to make such rapid exit. Sergeant Irving and Policemen Wright, man, Brooker and Cannon came to aid Roehrer. With the firemen the policemen started to get the other tenants to the street. The smoke was dense. Through it ploughed the rescuing forces. On the second floor they found a woman and two children nearly overcome by smoke and paralyzed by fear. They were taken down stairs.

Then somebody shouted that S. Chapiro, a cabinet, with his wife and four children, were on the top floor. Firemen rushed up the stairs and found the entire family unconscious from smoke. The six persons were taken to the street and revived. Other rescues came in rapid succession.

In none of the instances did the occupants have time to dress. They came to the cold streets in night attire, and most of them without shoes or stockings. The suffering from the cold was intense.

It was reported to the firemen that a fire had been found in the same grocery a year ago, and after taking a look at the situation it was decided to notify the Fire Marshal's office for a complete investigation. Samuel, the grocer, said that he had no idea what could have been the origin of the fire. He said he was in his own home asleep when it was discovered.

Textile Men to Dance.

The Textile Examiners' and Shrinkers' Union of New York will hold its second grand annual ball at the Lenox Casino, One Hundred and Sixteenth street and Lenox avenue, on Washington's Birthday eve, Feb. 21, 1911.

IF you eat while nervous, excited or troubled, the meal will not "set" well. Your nerves must be in perfect order, to digest and enjoy your food. A glass of

GOING OUT OF THE WOMEN'S APPAREL BUSINESS

Being Unable to Renew the Lease of Our
Women's Dept., We Are Compelled to Sell Out

Under the existing conditions this forced retiring presents a prodigious task. It is imperative that we enter upon the work of moving stocks at once before the season is upon us. We are ready and willing to make ruthless price cuts and sacrifice profits right and left to expedite this movement. The work involves the complete disposal of all Winter Goods left over, together with a $75,000 stock of furs (the furs will be a star feature of the sale, as we must sell every coat, scarf and muff during this sale).

The New Spring Stock already on hand will be offered at absolute cost price to make room for other goods now in process of manufacture.

This Sale Marks Our
LAST SPRING SEASON IN BUSINESS
